

NLHS
High School Battle of the Books

Purpose

- To encourage all students at the high school level to continue reading for enjoyment
- To expose students, regardless of reading ability, to quality literature representing a variety of literary styles and viewpoints
- Through the fun of competition, students improve reading, mature in their choices of reading material, and broaden their knowledge base
- The primary goal is to READ, not necessarily to win

Competition

- Manual is available online
- Follow the same rules and procedures as Middle School Battle of the Books
- District and Regional competition this year
- First ever regional competition
