

Journal #1Chapters 1 - 3*Topic: Childhood

Choose ONE of the following prompts and respond in 1 full page in your reading journal.

1. In chapter 1, Scout, Jem and Dill are fascinated by the Radley house. When you were a child was there a neighbor, family member or place that scared you? Describe that person/place as you remember them and think about how your experience parallels with with the childrens' in the novel.
2. The children enjoy their summer experiences. What kinds of experiences did you enjoy when you were a young child? Describe one of these experiences and think about how that experience was similar/different to those of the children in the novel.
3. In chapters 2 and 3, Scout begins her public school career. What were your "first days" of school like? Think about your earliest school experiences and how they compare with Scout's.

Journal #1Chapters 1 - 3*Topic: Childhood

Choose ONE of the following prompts and respond in 1 full page in your reading journal.

1. In chapter 1, Scout, Jem and Dill are fascinated by the Radley house. When you were a child was there a neighbor, family member or place that scared you? Describe that person/place as you remember them and think about how your experience parallels with with the childrens' in the novel.
2. The children enjoy their summer experiences. What kinds of experiences did you enjoy when you were a young child? Describe one of these experiences and think about how that experience was similar/different to those of the children in the novel.
3. In chapters 2 and 3, Scout begins her public school career. What were your "first days" of school like? Think about your earliest school experiences and how they compare with Scout's.

Journal #1Chapters 1 - 3*Topic: Childhood

Choose ONE of the following prompts and respond in 1 full page in your reading journal.

1. In chapter 1, Scout, Jem and Dill are fascinated by the Radley house. When you were a child was there a neighbor, family member or place that scared you? Describe that person/place as you remember them and think about how your experience parallels with with the childrens' in the novel.
2. The children enjoy their summer experiences. What kinds of experiences did you enjoy when you were a young child? Describe one of these experiences and think about how that experience was similar/different to those of the children in the novel.
3. In chapters 2 and 3, Scout begins her public school career. What were your "first days" of school like? Think about your earliest school experiences and how they compare with Scout's.