

Journal #2Chapters 4 - 6*Topic: Labels

Choose one of the following prompts and write ½ page response in your journal.

1. On page 39, the narrator says that "Jem was a born hero." What is a hero? Are they born or made? How is Jem a hero?
2. In Chapter 5, Miss Maudie is described as a "reasonable creature." What makes her "reasonable"? How would you define a "reasonable creature" in your own life?
3. On page 52, Jem tells Scout that she is "gettin' more like a girl every day." What does he mean? What is his definition of "girl"? How has that changed from then (1930's) to now (2018)?

Journal #2Chapters 4 - 6*Topic: Labels

Choose one of the following prompts and write ½ page response in your journal.

1. On page 39, the narrator says that "Jem was a born hero." What is a hero? Are they born or made? How is Jem a hero?
2. In Chapter 5, Miss Maudie is described as a "reasonable creature." What makes her "reasonable"? How would you define a "reasonable creature" in your own life?
3. On page 52, Jem tells Scout that she is "gettin' more like a girl every day." What does he mean? What is his definition of "girl"? How has that changed from then (1930's) to now (2018)?

Journal #2Chapters 4 - 6*Topic: Labels

Choose one of the following prompts and write ½ page response in your journal.

1. On page 39, the narrator says that "Jem was a born hero." What is a hero? Are they born or made? How is Jem a hero?
2. In Chapter 5, Miss Maudie is described as a "reasonable creature." What makes her "reasonable"? How would you define a "reasonable creature" in your own life?
3. On page 52, Jem tells Scout that she is "gettin' more like a girl every day." What does he mean? What is his definition of "girl"? How has that changed from then (1930's) to now (2018)?

Journal #2Chapters 4 - 6*Topic: Labels

Choose one of the following prompts and write ½ page response in your journal.

1. On page 39, the narrator says that "Jem was a born hero." What is a hero? Are they born or made? How is Jem a hero?
2. In Chapter 5, Miss Maudie is described as a "reasonable creature." What makes her "reasonable"? How would you define a "reasonable creature" in your own life?
3. On page 52, Jem tells Scout that she is "gettin' more like a girl every day." What does he mean? What is his definition of "girl"? How has that changed from then (1930's) to now (2018)?